

The Penobscot: Ancestral River, Contested Territory

New documentary film followed by dialogue with

Sherry Mitchell

Sherry Mitchell is a Penobscot attorney and activist and the executive director of the Land Peace Foundation, which is dedicated to the protection of indigenous rights.

Friday, November 13rd

7:00 pm, York Public Library

Spanning from the 1700's to the present-day legal battle of Penobscot Nation v. Mills, this documentary film explores the conflict over jurisdiction of contested Penobscot River territory that flows through the Penobscot Reservation. Featuring first-person accounts, the film chronicles the Penobscots' struggle to retain their territory and preserve treaty-reserved sustenance fishing rights for future generations.

Sponsored by: York Diversity Forum www.yorkdiversityforum.org

And 350 Maine, York Region