

PEACEMAKING RESOURCES

Websites

Buddhist Peace Fellowship

www.buddhistpeacefellowship.org

Aware of the interconnectedness of all things, the Buddhist Peace Fellowship cultivates conditions for peace, social justice, and environmental sustainability within ourselves, our communities, and the world.

New Hampshire Peace Action

www.nhpeaceaction.org

We envision a world in which nuclear disarmament, mutual security, global understanding, international cooperation and respect for human rights create social, economic, and environmental benefits for all humanity.

Peace Action Maine

www.peaceactionme.org

Peace Action Maine is a voice for education and a center for all people committed to disarmament and creative responses to conflict.

Peace is Loud

www.peaceisloud.org

Our mission is to generate a groundswell of people committed to building a culture of peace. Founded by activist, filmmaker and philanthropist Abigail Disney, Peace is Loud inspires action through media and speaking events that spotlight women leaders on the frontlines of peacemaking.

Seacoast Peace Academy

www.seacoastpeaceacademy.org

A non-partisan, principle-based community of learning that believes that peace is the wholeness created by right relationships with oneself, other persons, other cultures and the earth. These relationships are inclusive, non-violent, respectful and enduring. They are expressed as the Five Interrelated and Interdependent Spheres of Peace which include the personal, the social, the political, the institutional and the ecological.

World Peace List Surge

<https://listsurge.com/20-world-organizations-strive-establish-world-peace/>

Publications

Getting to Peace; William Ury; Viking (1999); ISBN 10:0670887587

A millennium manifesto for achieving peace at home, at work, in the community and in the world.

The Impossible Will Take a Little While; Paul Rogat Loeb; Basic Books (2014); ISBN 978-0-465-03173-3

How leaders and unsung heroes of world-changing political movements persevered in the face of feat, and seemingly overwhelming odds. What it's like to go up against Goliath—whether in South African apartheid, Mississippi segregation, Middle East dictatorships or corporations driving global climate change.

<http://www.theimpossible.org>

Interfaith Just Peacemaking: Jewish, Christian and Muslim Perspectives on the New Paradigm of Peace and War; Susan Brooks Thistlewaite; Palgrave Macmillan (2012); ISBN-13:978-1137923374.

Collected works of 27 Jewish, Christian and Muslim scholars and religious leaders on the ten “practice norms” of the peacemaking paradigm called Just Peace.

Film

Rooted in Peace The Music Hall; Portsmouth; Oct. 17
themusichall.org/calendar/event/rooted_in_peace

Rooted In Peace challenges viewers to examine their values as Americans and human beings. Award-winning filmmaker Greg Reitman takes us on film journey to take notice, stop the cycle of violence, and proactively seek ways to find personal and geopolitical balance. Features interviews with such luminaries and activists as Deepak Chopra, music legends Donovan, Mike Love and Pete Seeger, film director David Lynch, Nobel Peace Laureate Mairead Maguire, Ted Turner, Archbishop Desmond Tutu, neuroscientist Dan Siegel.